

BOTANICAL SURVEY REPORT

SITE NAME: Little Creek Bottomlands (New)

County: Durham
Quad: Southwest Durham, Chapel Hill
Acreage: 1,578
Province: Piedmont
Significance: 1 - County
Integrity: 2 - Medium
Landscape Value: No Special Merit
Threat Status: 3 - Medium
Ownership: Public; Corps of Engineers

Summary List of Special Plant Species: Quercus bicolor

Significant Features: Some of this Piedmont Bottomland Forest has not been impacted by sub-impoundments and/or Jordan Lake and remains in good condition.

Priorities and Further Investigation: Plants need extensive documentation.

Reconnaissance Dates: Cursory visits 1986 through 1996.

Surveyors: Jim and Liz Pullman

Location: Site extends from the entrance of Little Creek along the Orange County Line and includes the floodplain and low slopes to the Chatham County line.

Access to Site: Park at the sub-impoundment parking areas either at NC54 or at Farrington Road (CR1110).